Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

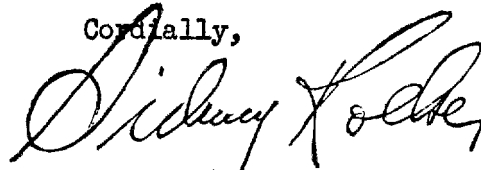

It is with a great deal of pleasure that the Colonials, Inc., invite you to be an Honorary Member for the year 1954-55.

The Colonials, Inc., were organized after World War II to encourage the athletic program of the University. Over the years this group of interested alumni have worked closely with the athletes and their coaches. This interest has been rewarded in increasingly proficient teams.

The entertainment side of the Colonials activities includes frequent receptions after football games, movies of games played away from home, and luncheons to honor our teams. You, as an honorary member, are invited to all of these functions. You will also receive the "Coach's Report" after each football game.

We hope you will enjoy your membership in the Colonials.

Cordially,

Sidney Kolker
President
